

Media, Investigative Journalism and Technology Conference 2010 @ AUT University

4-5 December 2010

FOURTH ESTATE 'CONVERSATION'

- Asia-Pacific and NZ keynote speakers
- Investigative updates and challenges plenaries
- Investigative documentary workshops
- Investigative photojournalism
- Frames of War photo exhibition
- Masterclass in investigative journalism
- Plus:
- A special seminar on peace journalism

Practitioners, journalists, academics, researchers, students who work in the creative industries and the public are invited to participate in a Fourth Estate "conversation" at the inaugural Media, Investigative Journalism & Technology Conference 2010.

A legacy of the conference will be the establishment of a collaborative and supportive group dedicated to investigative journalism in Aotearoa/New Zealand.

Keynote speakers:

- Kunda Dixit, editor of the Nepali Times and a leading Asia-Pacific investigative journalist. He will be visiting New Zealand as the PMC's 2010 Asian Journalism Fellow, sponsored by the Asia New Zealand Foundation;

- Professor Wendy Bacon, director of the Australian Centre for Independent Journalism,
- New Zealand investigative journalist and author Nicky Hager.
- Barbara Dreaver, Pacific correspondent of Television New Zealand.

Also featured will be Frames of War, Dixit and colleagues' photojournalism of the 10-year Maoist War in Nepal; Jim Marbrook's documentary work on the environment and mining conflict in New Caledonia. John Miller's Ngatihine photojournalism inquiry; Shailendra Singh on investigating corruption in Fiji; and Patrick Matbob on investigative journalism in Papua New Guinea.

4-5 December, AUT University, Conference Centre, City Campus

www.ciri.org.nz/conference2/index.html

Conference organiser:
Andrea Steward 0273382700

Pacific Media Centre
AUT University
www.pmc.aut.ac.nz
pmc@aut.ac.nz

AUT UNIVERSITY DESIGN+CREATIVE
TECHNOLOGIES

