WHY STUDY AT AUT?

1 Study in Auckland's CBD – our campus is only 15 minutes away from bustling Britomart 2 Network with employers at the Careers Fair 3 You can access a wide range of support services as an AUT business student 4 The City Campus is home to AUT's business programmes

New Zealand's leading modern university

AUT is proud to be one of the world's best modern universities. Times Higher Education has ranked us in the top 50 universities under 50 years of age, and among the top 1% (251–300) of universities in the world and second in New Zealand. The AUT Business School is internationally ranked and recognised globally as a top business educator. University rankings organisation QS places all of our business and economics subjects in the top 400 in the world. We've also been awarded the prestigious EQUIS accreditation and AACSB International accreditation, which puts us among an elite group of business schools around the world. As an AACSB-accredited business school, we offer top business and economics graduates membership to the prestigious international honours society Beta Gamma Sigma. This is a great addition to your CV and an excellent alumni networking opportunity.

Widely known for academic excellence

AUT's mission is to create great graduates, and we offer exceptional learning experiences that prepare our students to be successful wherever in the world their career may take them. Across all of our programmes, we encourage innovation and entrepreneurship, and the ability to explore new technologies, challenge routine thinking and solve problems in new ways. In the Bachelor of Business our classroom projects reflect contemporary business practice, and issues of ethics, social responsibility and sustainability are explored throughout the degree. Another unique part of our Bachelor of Business is the final-year workplace experience. You can complete a work placement, an applied research project or start your own business venture before graduating.

An innovative teaching and learning environment

AUT's university campuses feature modern buildings that win architecture awards and also offer excellent environments where students can collaborate and develop skills that help them stand out in their future careers. Our state-of-the-art buildings were created using sustainable principles and feature inviting and functional lecture theatres, auditoriums and research spaces. AUT's success in creating transformational educational spaces has been recognised with a five-star ranking for teaching and facilities, awarded by the world university rankings organisation QS.

Research that shapes tomorrow

AUT is ranked first in New Zealand by Times Higher Education for the number of times our research is cited globally. Our world-class researchers work in all major disciplines in business, and in our multidisciplinary research centres. At the heart of our research is collaboration with our external stakeholders in business, the professions, government and the community. The AUT Business School's New Zealand Work Research Institute has undertaken projects for the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, the Ministry of Women, and the Productivity Commission, helping shape social policy directions and decisions. Our research also feeds back into the classroom, and students can contribute to and learn from these research discoveries.

STUDENT LIFE

AUT is a modern and innovative university with endless opportunities, and a supportive culture that celebrates diversity and is committed to improving our local and global communities. Our students are at the heart of everything we do, and we're proactive in enabling them to succeed and be ready for any challenge in front of them.

Our Student Hubs – your place to get the support you need

AUT offers some of the most comprehensive student support services in New Zealand, and our Student Hub is where you can learn more about these services. Our professionally qualified staff include social workers who can look after and support our diverse student community. Our Student Hubs are available both online and across our campuses, so you can get help and support when and where you need it.

Getting you started on your uni journey

Studying at university is exciting and can be quite an adjustment. That's why AUT helps new students transition to university life by delivering a wide-ranging orientation programme at the start of each semester. We also offer activities throughout the semester to transition you into university life. AUT's app also provides up-to-date news, events, and information about AUT anytime, anywhere.

Helping you achieve your academic goals

We do everything we can to help you achieve your academic goals and set you up for a successful career. You'll have access to all the people, resources and technology you need to make the most of your learning opportunities. Our services include academic skills support through our library and their learning services, peer mentoring for help with assessments, childcare, free technology access and financial assistance, as well as tailored support for our postgraduate research students.

Supporting your wellbeing

Our students' health and wellbeing are our highest priority, and AUT is experienced in delivering support to aid students' overall wellbeing. This includes services like 24/7 security on campus; peer support from over 300 student ambassadors, navigators, peer advisors and RUOK advisors; financial assistance; medical, learning and systems access support, as well as physical and mental wellbeing support. We actively encourage students to be aware of their wellness needs – mind, body, and spirit. As an AUT student you have access to free and confidential counselling sessions, peer support and programmes to develop better self-knowledge and resilience.

Enabling opportunities for a vibrant uni experience

We want you to make the most of university life, and have fun and grow during your time with us. That's why we offer a range of spaces and initiatives for students including clubs, events, sporting opportunities and state-of-the-art recreational facilities. Our clubs are student-led and cover social, sustainability, cultural and academic interests. If you can't find something you enjoy, you're always welcome to create something new!

Celebrating our people

We celebrate diversity and our commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi with passion, curiosity and pride. We have a strong commitment to Māori and Pacific community advancement, and have dedicated teams to support all students at AUT. We were the first university in New Zealand to achieve the Rainbow Tick. We're committed to equity of access and opportunity for students, staff and visitors, and support the principles of Kia Ōrite: Code of Practice for an inclusive tertiary environment.

Our dedicated teams include disability services, and rainbow and international student support. Our Student Association (AUTSA) advocates and represents the interests of all AUT students, and shares students' voices through its Debate magazine.

Beyond learning and into employability

Our services, competitions and awards offer you enriching life experiences that will support your career once you graduate. These opportunities can help you gain an edge in the marketplace through workplace experience, international exchanges, industry connections, and CV and interview preparation for when you're ready to start your career. Our CO.STARTERS@AUT programme, X Challenge competition or AUT Ventures Ltd are also a great incubator for your entrepreneurial ideas and can help you bring your ideas to market.

International exchange

While studying with us, you can do one or two semesters overseas on a student exchange, experiencing a different culture, language and education system.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Top students in undergraduate and postgraduate business degree programmes at AUT will be invited to join this prestigious international honours society. Established in 1913 in the United States, the society's mission is "to encourage and honour academic achievement in the study of business, to foster personal and professional excellence, to advance the values of the Society, and to serve its lifelong members".

Support for business students

Study with us and you can access a wide range of services designed to help you make the most of your time at AUT.

To find out more email belstudentsuccess@aut.ac.nz

Faculty Student Support

We can help you access all the faculty and university services on offer. We provide course advice and help you plan your individual path of study. We can sit with you at any stage of your degree to sort out any issues you might be having. We also help with enquiries about enrolment, timetables, course information, exams, assessments and graduation.

Visit us on Level 1, WF building on the City Campus or Level 1, MB Building on the South Campus. You can also contact us on +64 9 921 9721 or business@aut.ac.nz

Student success activities

Our team works alongside business, economics and law students, academic staff and the student services teams across AUT. We can support you with a range of activities, including academic support and wellbeing workshops, tips for preparing for assessments and tailored one-to-one support and academic advice.

Study groups

We can help you join unsupervised study groups. Study groups help you connect with other students in an informal setting for peer mentoring, socialising and studying with the common goal of achieving your university degree.

Become a peer leader or student mentor

Develop your leadership skills and enhance your CV. There are paid and voluntary opportunities for students to take on peer mentoring and leadership roles. As a senior student you can provide academic mentoring and help new students settle into university life.

Māori and Pacific student support

Whatever you need during your journey at AUT, you'll find support and a whānau community at the AUT City and South Campus. Through tailored mentoring and support activities you'll be able to access academic support and develop cultural connections.

All Māori students can join our Piki Ake Kaipakihi Māori group, which provides invaluable study skills support. This is complemented by the Tuakana Teina peer tutoring and study skills programme, which offers workshops on the City and South Campuses, as well as individual mentoring.

Faculty student representatives

While you're studying with us, you can become a faculty student representative. If you're keen to influence change, meet with academic staff and provide feedback about the student experience, being a faculty student representative enables you to collaborate with your peers, expand your leadership skills and raise any issues.

"What I enjoyed most about my studies at AUT was being valued as an individual. Not just being a number was amazing and not standard for a university of this size. I'd recommend the Bachelor of Business to anybody who wants to personalise their studies as the programme is super flexible, and students can get a lot of support from AUT. I also enjoyed being a student ambassador, a student representative for business, economics and law students, and an 'R U OK advisor'. These are great ways to get to know many new people and make great friends for life."

"I had many friends who had already completed their degrees by the time I was looking at university, and the feedback I got was that AUT was the clear winner. I didn't really want to sit down and take a three-hour test in a hall with over 100 other students; I wanted a more interactive learning experience where you weren't afraid to say the wrong answer because you'd learn from it and not feel bad. That's why I chose to come to AUT. The highlight for me were the friends I made along the way. It was great seeing people of all ages in my classes, befriending people right out of high school as well as those who had decided to study for a change in career."

What this qualification covers

The Bachelor of Business is highly flexible and you can build your degree in a way that suits you and your interests.

To graduate with a Bachelor of Business you need to complete:

Core courses (120 points)

These are courses all students in this degree need to take. They give you a basic understanding of business processes and practices, and help you decide which subject to focus on later in your studies. One of the core courses is the Capstone course – a workplace experience, applied project or a new business venture – which is the final part of your degree and takes place in your final semester.

Your chosen major (120 points)

Your major is the subject area you want to specialise in. This makes up one third of your degree, and usually consists of eight courses related to your chosen subject. You can view the list of majors in this degree on page 12.

Flexible component (120 points)

You can choose one of the following options

- Two minors (60 points each); or
- A minor (60 points) and elective courses (60 points); or
- A second major (120 points)

Your second major, minor(s) and elective courses can be from business or from different AUT degrees.

Majors

Choose one of these majors as part of your degree:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Finance
- Human Resource Management and Employment Relations
- Information Systems
- International Business and Strategy
- Management and Leadership
- Marketing

Refer to pages 14 to 21 for more details on each of these majors.

If you want to include a second major in your degree, you can choose another subject from the list above or can see more options from different AUT degrees on

aut.ac.nz/majors-minors

Minors

A minor is smaller than a major. It usually consists of four courses. If you decide to include a minor in your degree, you could choose from:

- Accounting
- Business Law
- Data Analytics for Business
- Design Thinking
- Economics
- Entrepreneurship and Innovation
- Finance
- Human Resource Management and Employment Relations
- Information Systems
- International Business and Strategy
- Management and Leadership
- Māori Indigenous Business
- Marketing
- Supply Chain Management
- Sustainable Enterprise

For more information on each of these minors and to see even more minors from other subjects visit

aut.ac.nz/majors-minors

Minors are subject to variation and availability. For the latest information visit aut.ac.nz/majors-minors

Build your degree on our website

Visit our website to build your own degree and see what your three years of study could look like. Simply scan the QR code on page 11.

Possible examples of combinations include:

- Bachelor of Business in Marketing with minors in Design Thinking and Event Management (one major, two minors)
- Bachelor of Business in Economics with a minor in Supply Chain Management (one major, one minor, plus elective courses of your choice)
- Bachelor of Business in Accounting and Finance (two majors)

Workplace experience

As a Bachelor of Business student you not only learn academic knowledge related to your chosen subject(s) but also gain valuable, hands-on workplace experience in your final semester. You get the opportunity to apply your knowledge and skills to a workplace situation, while still being able to get feedback from your lecturers who help you analyse your experiences and performance.

Employers value the fresh ideas and latest thinking you bring to the organisation, and for many of our students the workplace experience also leads to a permanent role in their host organisation.

Co-operative Education – Capstone Experience

This is a supervised work placement for an organisation of your choice. It's a great chance to apply what you've learnt in the classroom and develop your skills in a business environment. You can complete your work placement in New Zealand or overseas, and throughout your work placement you'll be mentored by a workplace supervisor and an AUT academic.

These are some of the companies our students have completed their placements in:

- Auckland Council
- Auckland District Health Board
- Breast Cancer Foundation New Zealand
- China Construction Bank

- DDB
- Deloitte
- EY
- Grant Thornton
- Green Cross Health
- Jacobsens Creative Surfaces
- KPMG
- Progressive Enterprises
- PwC
- The Warehouse Group
- Vodafone NZ
- Waitemata District Health Board

Capstone Project

An alternative to Co-operative Education is the research-based Capstone Project. You can investigate discipline-related topics or issues specific to an existing organisation or an industry, or that are future focused. Working alongside an academic supervisor, you'll apply advanced research skills, giving you a strong foundation for postgraduate study.

Recent projects have included:

- Readability of KiwiSaver disclosure statements
- Accountability through social media for NFPs
- Tax incentives for private health insurers
- Engaging consumers through social media

"In my final year, I loved being able to choose elective courses that give you the opportunity to learn something completely different in a new field of interest. I also very much enjoyed my workplace experience where I could apply what I'd learnt in class in the real world. Being able to get a taste of a real marketing role was such an awesome opportunity and really helped me develop my skills. In my role now, I love the creative aspect of bringing ideas to the table for new products, from concept to design and manufacturing, to seeing the product on the shelves at the supermarket."

Bachelor of Business Accounting

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Accounting is a dynamic career, delivering multifaceted business analysis, and contributing to the strategic development of business, public sector and not-for-profit organisations. Accountants must be excellent communicators and strongly analytical, as well as having the required technical skills specific to the vocation. They must relate to people from all walks of life, as they're frequently called upon to explain concepts and strategies to those outside the financial sphere. The changing nature of accounting software packages means that accountants need to have well-developed technical skills.

What this major covers

In the first semester, all students take the same core courses. These courses give you a basic understanding of business processes and practices, and help you decide which subject to focus on later in your studies. In your second semester you explore accounting essentials, including procedures and systems to collect information, and start to take the first courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 2

You gain an understanding of international practices, and how accounting supports decision-making. Courses may cover areas like financial and management accounting, auditing and taxation. You also continue to take courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 3

In the first semester you take the final courses related to your major(s), minor(s) or elective courses. In your final semester you undertake workplace experience. You can choose to work in an organisation of your choice, start your own venture or complete an applied project, bringing together your learning and gaining valuable experience. Recent placements included: ANZ Bank, Auckland Council, Audit New Zealand, Deloitte, EY, KPMG, Vodafone NZ, Westpac Bank.

"The smaller-sized workshops we had at AUT helped to create a comfortable environment where I felt confident in participating amongst my peers. I've also enjoyed the support systems in place at AUT, specifically those tailored to Māori or Pacific students. At university it can be easy to feel isolated and overwhelmed, so I'm thankful for the opportunities and support offered at AUT. I'm currently working as a senior advisor in the private enterprise division at KPMG, and am working towards becoming a qualified chartered accountant. Here at KPMG, I'm also a co-leader and mentor in the KIWA programme, which provides mentorship to Māori and Pacific tertiary students interested in a corporate career."

Bachelor of Business Economics

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Are you interested in making and implementing public policy? Or do you want to gain fundamental insights into how businesses operate in the wider national and global environments? If so, a career in economics is well worth your consideration. The discipline of economics is founded on the three fundamental fields of microeconomics, macroeconomics and econometrics. Concepts from these areas can be combined to form public policy responses to social issues, including poverty, unemployment, climate change, crime and inequality. They can also provide insight into the commercial sector including competition, regulation and corporate strategy.

In your second semester you explore the fundamentals of microeconomics and macroeconomics, and start to take the first courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 2

You develop an understanding of how economic theory can be applied to a wide range of issues faced by consumers, businesses and governments. Courses will cover areas like microeconomics, macroeconomics and econometrics. You also continue to take courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 3

In the first semester you take the final courses related to your major(s), minor(s) or elective courses. In your final semester you undertake workplace experience. "The lecturers were incredible. Having smaller classes enabled me to form better relationships with the lecturers, and I didn't feel like a number at any point. Before studying at AUT I never thought of myself as someone who could excel in their studies, so to make the dean's honours list in both 2019 and in 2020, and being named the top graduate in economics and top graduate in the Co-operative Education course was amazing. I'm proud of being chosen for ANZ's sought-after graduate programme. These roles can be very competitive, so to be chosen is an achievement. The programme sees me rotating around five different institutional areas of the bank before landing on my final role in this organisation."

Bachelor of Business Finance

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Whether launching an entrepreneurial startup or working in a giant multinational corporation, finance is at the heart of business operations. It explores how individuals and organisations raise, invest and manage funds to increase wealth and create jobs and growth. Professionals in this field could work with anyone from everyday people in a financial advising role to guiding large companies through the process of listing their shares on stock exchanges.

The AUT Business School is part of the CFA Institute University Affiliation Program. This means the Bachelor of Business in Finance curriculum is based on the CFA Program curriculum, positioning you well to obtain the Chartered Financial Analyst designation – a globally respected and recognised investment credential.

"There were plenty of interesting subjects to choose from, and there was flexibility to enable me to fit my study around work and life. I was also very happy with the level of teaching. It was a pleasure to meet so many interesting lecturers who inspired me to learn and grow. Finally, it's great that AUT is actively helping students transition from study to work, by organising career days, inviting students to some companies' open days and other activities. While I enjoyed all those amazing programmes, Shadow a Leader was the one that landed me a job as I got to shadow the CEO of Watercare, for a day."

Human Resource Management and Employment Relations

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Human resources professionals ensure that staff are engaged, productive, and developing as valued and skilled workers. Careers in human resources and employment relations encompass workforce planning, negotiation, recruitment and selection, performance management, learning and development, health, safety, and wellbeing and legal compliance. If you enjoy finding solutions, are interested in diversity and organisational culture and want to have influence with people at all levels in a variety of organisations, a career in human resources and employment relations could be for you.

In the first semester, all students take the same core courses. These courses give you a basic understanding of business processes and practices, and help you decide which subject to focus on later in your studies. In your second semester you explore the fundamentals of human resource management and employment relations, and start to take the first courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 2

You gain an understanding of current employment issues including the complex relationships between employees, employers, government and trade unions, and internal and external factors that influence organisational behaviour. Courses may cover areas like diversity and inclusion, health and safety, and learning and development. You also continue to take courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 3

In the first semester you take the final courses related to your major(s), minor(s) or elective courses. In your final semester you undertake workplace experience. You can choose to work in an organisation of your choice, start your own venture or complete an applied project, bringing together your learning and gaining valuable experience. Recent placements included: DB Breweries, Farmers Trading Company, Fletcher Construction, Nestlé NZ Ltd, Progressive Enterprises, SKY TV, Waitemata District Health Board and Warehouse Stationery.

Career opportunities

- Employment relations specialist
- Human resource manager
- Industry training advisor
- Recruitment consultant
- Talent manager
- Risk analyst

"In the first year, we got to do a lot of group work, which was great training for the real world. It has proved to be valuable for my career. I got snatched up right away after my AUT workplace experience in an HR department. When I finished my studies, I applied for an entry level position but the recruitment agency who hired me straight out of uni was so impressed by my alumni status and being part of the Beta Gamma Sigma honours society, as well as the workplace experience as part of my degree, that they offered me a recruitment consultant role."

Are you methodical, analytical and interested in how digital technology is changing our work lives? Do you like the idea of developing and acquiring innovative digital technologies to support business? Would you enjoy working with a broad range of professionals? If so, a career in information systems could be great for you. Information systems professionals operate in the crucial area between an organisation's technological systems and its users, managing and organising the systems for the organisation.

In the first semester, all students take the same core courses. These courses give you a basic understanding of business processes and practices, and help you decide which subject to focus on later in your studies. In your second semester you explore the fundamentals of information systems and their importance to organisations of all sizes, and start to take the first courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 2

You learn how to analyse and model business processes, design and implement databases, understand the challenges associated with organisational information systems, and manage projects. Courses may cover areas like data management, cyber-security and risk management. You also continue to take courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 3

In the first semester you take the final courses related to your major(s), minor(s) or elective courses. In your final semester you undertake workplace experience. "I'm fascinated by how technology can be used by businesses to improve systems, processes and the way people work and live. Some of AUT's classes invite industry professionals who provide real-life examples related to the topic of study. I also enjoyed completing the workplace experience, which is one of the core courses in AUT's Bachelor of Business degree. Another highlight were the information systems classes where we solved real industry issues with process and data analysis, improvement recommendations and made changes to the system patterns before submitting final reports. This helped us practise our theoretical understanding."

International Business and Strategy

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Driven by disruptive changes in technology, policy and globalisation, today's dynamic business environment presents new challenges and opportunities to nations, organisations and people. In New Zealand, international trade accounts for two thirds of total economic activity, multinationals dominate business, and many small and medium enterprises are internationalising early. International business and strategy focuses on the key skills required to strategise successfully in this environment, from working across different cultures and in diverse teams, to creating value through analytical and conceptual thinking, and managing innovation.

In the first semester, all students take the same core courses. These courses give you a basic understanding of business processes and practices, and help you decide which subject to focus on later in your studies. In your second semester you explore the fundamentals of international business, and start to take the first courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 2

You gain an understanding of the international business environment, trade policies and internationalisation strategies, analyse complex global issues from diverse perspectives, engage in strategic planning and analytics, and examine disruption and innovation. You also continue to take courses from your second major, minor(s) or elective courses.

YEAR 3

In the first semester you take the final courses related to your major(s), minor(s) or elective courses. In your final semester you undertake workplace experience. You could work in an organisation of your choice, which could be overseas; work on a strategic consulting project, or complete an applied project to prepare for postgraduate study. "I loved AUT! It really gave me a feel of what it will be like in the real world. My first year was key as it helped me experience a bit of everything in the business world, and from there I got to pick what I wanted to carry on with in my studies. I love marketing and building brands, and I ended up picking international business as a second major as I love how brands launch into new markets around the world. I'm glad I made that choice as a few years later I found myself working in Dubai, a hub for localising brands into the Middle East."

Management and Leadership

Scan this QR code for details about courses, where your study could lead and stories about our great graduates and students.

Organisations of all sizes and types need leaders and managers who can deal with the demands of leading change in the 21st century. Profitability, sustainability, innovation, ethical decision making, stakeholder relations, market share and resource utilisation are just some of the issues that leaders must face. A key aspect of management is the ability to work in partnership with diverse groups of people, to motivate and integrate the requirements of the business, be it in the private, public or non-profit sectors. This calls for extremely well-developed interpersonal skills and emotional intelligence, as well as a strong sense of commercial awareness and New Zealand's place in a globalised, connected world.

"My lightbulb moment came in my first year at AUT, when we were learning about social enterprise in one of my first business courses. I had been aware that social enterprise was a type of business, but until that moment I hadn't realised that it could be so achievable and successful. I followed my passion and managed to complete my final-year workplace experience at Eat My Lunch. Employment at a social enterprise quickly became a reality for me, as during my workplace experience Eat My Lunch offered me a role. I'm now responsible for managing all delivery staff and outbound activities for Eat My Lunch, in both Auckland and Wellington."

New media channels are emerging and rivalling traditional ways of going to market. Integrated shopping experiences extend from the shop floor to Facebook, Twitter, email marketing, texting, television and radio, direct mail and catalogues. Because of this omni-channel environment, businesses need to keep tabs on what's driving their consumers, so they can anticipate trends to prepare for what is coming next and identify the best opportunities for growth. If you're curious about how the marketplace operates and why consumers respond as they do, this major is a good option.

"I chose to study both sport and business due to my keen interest in the nature of sports in New Zealand, specifically how marketing in sports worked. I enjoy working with New Zealand's best athletes and events. I knew I was in the right place when I really broke down how Red Bull approached the sports marketing world. The entire essence of Red Bull's philosophy is to Give Wiiiings to people and ideas. I'm particularly proud of the athlete content projects, new athlete signings and events we have delivered. It's inspiring to see athletes and events grow their legacy."

"The Diploma in Business is a great introductory programme that enables you to explore all the areas business has to offer. It's great for those who want to learn a bit more about business and what it actually means to do a business degree. The programme has made me feel much more confident in the world of business, allowing me to have a clear understanding of basic business concepts. I hadn't done business in high school, and it helped me feel prepared to move into a bachelor's degree and have discussions about economics, consumer behaviour and finance. I'd like to work in advertising and marketing for creative industries like product companies, music companies, record labels or media organisations."

FEES & SCHOLARSHIPS

Cost is an important factor when thinking about university study. This page gives you an idea of the approximate tuition fees at AUT, and different options to help you fund your education including scholarships, student loans and allowances.

To give you an idea of approximate costs, the 2023 tuition fees are shown below (based on full-time study and completing 120 points per year). All fees are in NZ dollars and include GST. The 2024 tuition fees will be advertised on aut.ac.nz/fees as soon as they have been set. You may also need to pay additional fees for course materials or elective courses (check with your faculty if there are additional fees for your programme).

Domestic student tuition fees

First-time domestic students are entitled to one year of fees free.

Undergraduate programmes

Fee (per year): $3,835 (for 60 points) –
$8,533 (for 120 points)¹
($3,298–$7,459 tuition fees
+ $537–$1,074 student services levy)

1. Part-time students pay a proportion of the fee based on the number of academic points they are studying.

International student tuition fees

Undergraduate programmes

Fee (per year): $16,787 (for 60 points) –
$33,674 (for 120 points)
($16,250–$32,600 tuition fees
+ $537–$1,074 student services levy)

Please note that you must pay your fees in full by the date specified on your fees invoice.

To find out more about fees call +64 9 921 9779
or 0800 AUT AUT (0800 288 288).

Free fees for your university study¹

Eligible domestic students starting tertiary education receive one year of full-time study fees-free.

To check if you're eligible for fees-free study in 2024 visit aut.ac.nz/fees

Student loans and allowances¹

If you're a full-time domestic student, you may qualify for a student loan or allowance. Student loans and allowances are administered and paid by StudyLink. The application process can take some time, so it's a good idea to apply early. You can apply for a student loan or student allowance before your enrolment at AUT is complete.

To find out more call 0800 88 99 00
or visit studylink.govt.nz

1. Domestic students only, not available to international students.

Financial assistance

We know that sometimes things happen and financial stress can impact your academic success. That's why we offer financial support that ranges from offering grocery or fuel vouchers, to helping with that unexpected bill.

StudyLink

Visit studylink.govt.nz for tools, tips and information to help you plan and understand the costs you will have while studying.

Scholarships and awards

Scholarships and awards are a great way to fund your university study. There is a wide range of scholarships and awards available to AUT students at all stages of their study including the Welcome to Auckland scholarship and Find Your Greatness scholarship (details below).

Visit the scholarships website for a full current list of scholarships offered by AUT and external funders, as well as application forms and closing dates. You can also contact AUT's Scholarships Office for advice on scholarships, awards and the scholarship application process.

2024 AUT Welcome to Auckland Scholarships

Because we recognise the challenges students may face when moving to Auckland, AUT's three-year Welcome to Auckland scholarships make a contribution towards students' accommodation and study fees. These scholarships recognise high-achieving secondary school students living outside of Auckland who intend to enrol in bachelor's degree study commencing in 2024.

2024 AUT Find Your Greatness Scholarships – School Leaver

AUT's Find Your Greatness undergraduate scholarships for school leavers reflect our commitment to creating great graduates. These three-year scholarships recognise students' academic achievement, as well as students' potential leadership ability and contribution to their school or community, cultural pursuits or sport at a representative level.

The Find Your Greatness scholarships are offered in the four categories below for study commencing in 2024:

- Academic Excellence
- All Rounder
- Hiki Ake (Lift Up)
- Kiwa (Māori and Pacific students)

Applicants will be considered in all categories for which they are eligible.
