Q: I want to attend a sold-out event. Can I get in?

A: Unfortunately not. If you have special circumstances that you feel warrant an exception, please contact research.week@aut.ac.nz to enquire.

Q: I've registered but need to change / cancel my booking. How can I do that?

A: Please contact research.week@aut.ac.nz to get your booking amended.

Q: I'm interested in an event but I'm not in the target audience (i.e. I'm a student and it's for staff). Can I attend?

A: Please contact research.week@aut.ac.nz to enquire.

Q: Is my event accessible?

A: Research Week events are wheelchair accessible; and we can work with you for any other accessibility requirements. Please contact research.week@aut.ac.nz to enquire.

Q: Will there be recordings of events available after Research Week?

A: This depends on the event, but the vast majority of events are in-person only (not livestreamed or recorded). Please contact research.week@aut.ac.nz for specific information.

Q: Is my event available online / livestreamed?

A: Most events are in-person only. The exceptions are:

- Pacific Research Day – some sessions available online
- AUT 3 Minute Thesis (3MT) Competition Finals – fully livestreamed

Links are supplied to registered attendees.

Q: Can I take away a copy of the full Research Week programme booklet?

A: You are welcome to view the printed programme booklet at the information desk, or a digital version at the Research Week website. For sustainability reasons we do not supply take-home copies.

Q: Can I get a copy of the programme for a symposium?

A: Digital copies of programmes for symposia and other major events are on the individual event websites, accessible from the main Research Week website. Printed copies of programmes will be available for major events at the Research Week info table in WZ100 on the day of each event.

Q: Is there WIFI available?

A: Yes! Please log in with the credentials below. For any troubleshooting, please contact ICT directly.
