

AK1044 Master of Laws

Graduate Profile for the Master of Laws

A graduate of the Master of Laws will be able to:

- a. Apply advanced theoretical and practical knowledge a wide range of law and legal issues and will be able to better integrate this with their existing knowledge and experience. (Knowledge/Understanding)
- b. Adjust to a rapidly changing commercial and professional environment by developing their capacity to carry out independent and self-directed research and study. (Personal/Intellectual Autonomy; Inquiry/Research/Creativity)
- c. Demonstrate enhanced ability to identify the underlying and sometimes unexpressed concepts and theories that inform judicial opinions and legislative proposals. (Ethical/Professional Dispositions)
- d. Demonstrate sophisticated critical-thinking skills, and have an enhanced ability to employ a wide range of electronic legal databases. (Inquiry/Research/Creativity; Skills/Application)
- e. Demonstrate effective and coherent written and oral communication skills with regard to advanced legal concepts and theories. (Communication)