Welcome to AUT Law School

A law degree prepares you for legal practice and opens doors to a wide range of other rewarding careers. If you have a passion for law and social justice, a love of words and language, enjoy reading, solving problems and articulating reasoned and logical arguments then you should consider law.

Studying law with us will be a challenging but stimulating experience. Our undergraduate Bachelor of Laws qualification is both theoretically and practically focused. It provides you with a relevant and high quality legal education that will be your gateway to the profession, and into an increasingly diverse and flexible workforce.

We want you to succeed. We take pride in the emphasis we place on excellent teaching. Interactive workshops in most of the compulsory LLB papers give you the opportunity to hone your skills in legal analysis, problem-solving and effective communication to enable you to reach your full potential.

Your lecturers are dedicated to bringing their experience of the law and legal practice to the classroom to create an inspiring and collegial learning environment. AUT boasts some of the most advanced educational facilities in New Zealand.

AUT Law School is committed to producing graduates who, through incisive thinking, critical analysis, effective communication and practical application, are able to thrive in this constantly changing world. We look forward to you joining us.

Professor Charles Rickett

WHY STUDY LAW?

RANKED

WORLDWIDE

Strong connections with
the legal profession

Learn from leading research-active staff

A world-ranked law school

The AUT Law School opened in 2009 as New Zealand's sixth law school and is already ranked in the top 300 law schools in the world. We offer you a highly respected and versatile degree that will prepare you for legal practice or a wide range of other career options. Study with us and you'll develop rigorous thinking skills, excellent communication and advocacy skills, and become a considered and innovative problem solver. Law graduates have one of the highest employability rates of all university graduates. AUT law graduates are no exception – you can find AUT law alumni in top law firms or in business, finance, government, media and other sectors.

Creating career-ready graduates

Alongside core traditional lawyering skills, the AUT Law School offers hands-on learning through practical, community-focused electives and other opportunities for experiential learning. Moots, dispute resolution exercises, negotiations and drafting court documents are all part of your degree, and will help you build a strong foundation for your future career. You'll learn critical thinking, problem-solving, social and communication skills, and work habits that will prepare you well for a wide range of careers and job opportunities.

To complement your learning in class, you can also apply for clerkships and other internship positions, where you can apply what you've learnt in a professional environment. This well-rounded experience stands out to employers and has helped many of our students secure a job before they even graduate.

An inspiring learning environment

During your studies you'll have many opportunities to interact with law professionals and world-class law academics. We combine large lectures with smaller, interactive classes and workshops to enable you to explore a range of scenarios, and collaborate with other students and academic staff. This approach creates a close-knit, supportive environment, and it's one of many reasons 9 out of 10 AUT graduates recommend us as a great place to study.

Learn from the best

Our experienced lecturers are passionate about their subjects and constantly draw on their own experience and research to inform their teaching. This ensures that we're at the forefront of the latest developments within the legal profession, which is also reflected in your coursework. We're proud of the strong connections with our law alumni, and we often bring them back into the classroom so they can share their experiences and learnings with current students.

A vibrant student culture

As an AUT law student you have access to an ever-growing range of extracurricular opportunities and law societies. Student societies are a great way to get to know more of your peers and make the most of your university experience. You learn to collaborate with people from diverse backgrounds, and develop your leadership, self-management and problem-solving skills.

A thriving community of law graduates

Being able to network and establish lasting relationships is an important part of being a lawyer. When you graduate you automatically become a member of the AUT Law School Alumni Association (AUTLSAA), which makes it easy to stay in touch with the people you've met while studying and make connections with graduates from other cohorts.

Excellent legal resources

Our library offers a wide range of top legal resources. These include a variety of legal databases containing cases, legislation, commentary and other resources from CCH, LexisNexis, Thomson Reuters, Westlaw NZ, HeinOnline and other major legal providers.

Broaden your skills and career opportunities

Gain a competitive edge and enhance your career options by choosing to study law alongside business, communications or arts. You can complete double degrees in as little as five years. It's a great way to expand your employment options and develop a broad range of skills; a trait that's highly sought after by employers.

The AUT City Campus, in the heart of the Auckland CBD

Our research centres

AUT Centre for Non-Adversarial Justice

Established in 2016, the AUT Centre for Non-Adversarial Justice aims to identify and promote various models of justice under the broad banner of non-adversarial justice. Theories of non-adversarial justice arise from many different but interconnected law-related disciplines, which offer different approaches to legal problem-solving. They include restorative justice, collaborative law, therapeutic jurisprudence, alternative dispute resolution, problem-solving courts and procedural justice.

AUT Centre for Private Law

Founded in 2015, the AUT Centre for Private Law aims to promote the understanding of private law through a variety of doctrinal, theoretical, empirical, historical and comparative methodologies. Its task is to facilitate research and debate across the entire spectrum of private law including tort law, contract law, the law of unjust enrichment, property law, equity and private international law.

AUT Centre for Indigenous Rights and Law

The AUT Centre for Indigenous Rights and Law was established in 2017 and aims to raise the visibility of legal rights, issues and customary law relevant to the native peoples of Aotearoa and the Asia Pacific region. This will be achieved through scholarship, teaching and research collaborations within and between local and international institutions. The Centre's members include prominent and emerging indigenous and non-indigenous scholars whose research and teaching has a focus on the development and advancement of indigenous peoples through the law and domestic and international human rights.

Sholan Ivaiti

4th-year student, Bachelor of Laws
Māori Cook Island

"One of the achievements I'm most proud of during my time at AUT was making the Dean's list for the Constitutional Law paper in my first year at AUT. I came to AUT after working in accounting and auditing roles in New Zealand, Australia and the Cook Islands, including as a senior auditor for EY and for GK Accounting, and as board director for the Bank of the Cook Islands and of the Cook Islands Superannuation Fund. I'm currently an audit director of Integrity Audit. I made the decision to pursue a law degree because I could see it would complement my accounting background well, and provide me with an understanding of the legal framework and legal requirements in New Zealand, particularly from a commercial perspective."

As an AUT law student you become part of our vibrant student culture and can join our student societies to make the most of your time at AUT

Support for law students

Faculty Student Support Office

We can provide you with all the information you need while you're studying with us, and can help you access all the faculty and university services on offer. We offer course advice and help you plan your individual path of study. We can also help with any questions you may have about enrolment, timetables, paper information, exams, assessments and graduation.

Alice Alipour

Graduate Solicitor, Shieff Angland Lawyers
Bachelor of Laws

"I appreciated the close relationship with the academics, the friendly students, practical teaching methods and all the cool competitions you could participate in. The things we covered in class are all relevant to today's society. We dealt with issues that are important now and that we would likely encounter once we're in the workforce. I now work at commercial law firm Shieff Angland Lawyers, and currently assist the litigators in preparing pleadings, drafting affidavits and briefs of evidence. I also draft interesting articles in relation to new developments in the law. AUT's practical teaching method has enabled me to communicate with the partners effectively. The competitions I completed while I was a law student at AUT have also helped me develop my client interviewing skills."

Student societies

AUT Law Students' Society (AUTLSS)

AUTLSS is a fully integrated member of the New Zealand Law Students' Association Incorporated, and exists to further the interests of students enrolled in the AUT law degree. We have established strong links with a number of law firms and organisations, including the Auckland District Law Society Inc., the College of Law, the Institute of Professional Legal Studies, and the Arbitrators and Mediators Institute of New Zealand.

Advancing Pacific Island Law Students (APILS)

APILS is dedicated to the progression and success of Pacific Island law students here at AUT. We believe that your overall success will require hard work, determination and a supportive network of people who want to see you achieve. APILS was created to be that reliable network students can look to for support. We aspire to make a difference in your learning experience, push you to aim higher and do well as you make your way through law school.

Samantha Hiew

Barrister and Solicitor, Croftfield Law
Bachelor of Laws

"Getting involved in the student community was a great part of university life because everyone knew everybody, including the lecturers who were often willing to offer a hand. While I was at AUT, I co-founded the AUT Mooting Society, as well as the Malaysian Students' Association at AUT. I'm also proud of being elected administrative vice president of the AUT Law Students' Society and being awarded the title of AuSM's Administrator of the Year in 2016. I represented AUT in the senior moot at the annual New Zealand Law Students' Association National Conference in 2016, and was runner-up in the Top Mooter Competition run by the AUT Mooting Society. I learned to advocate for clients, and gained confidence in court etiquette. These are invaluable skills in my career now."

University life

As an AUT student you study at a modern and innovative university, and have the chance to meet new people and develop lifelong skills, while getting the support you need to succeed at university and beyond.

Creating career-ready graduates

The AUT Employability and Careers team helps you plan in advance for your future career by developing job search and interview skills, while building your personal brand and networking skills. We'll also introduce you to employers looking to recruit AUT graduates.

Gain an edge on the competition

The AUT Edge Award challenges, rewards and formally acknowledges the 'C skills' – collaboration, co-operation, community, curiosity, communication and creativity – gained through your volunteering, leadership and employability activities.

International study opportunities

An international student exchange offers an amazing opportunity to study overseas as part of your degree. Study for a semester or a year at one of our partner universities around the world, and immerse yourself in another culture, make lifelong friends and get international experience before you graduate.

Helping you succeed

Our library and learning support team offers a wide range of services and resources, including access to an extensive collection of print and online databases, as well as workshops to help you get a head start on your studies. Drop in any time, we're happy to help any way we can.

Easy to get help

The AUT Student Hub is the place to go for help. Located on each campus, the Student Hub provides a range of services, from academic or personal advice to questions about fees and support for our diverse student communities.

Support for first-year students

Studying at university can be quite an adjustment.

That's why AUT is proactive in helping you transition to university life. From Orientation to our peer mentoring programme where senior students share their experience with you, our student support services make a huge difference to life as a first-year student.

Top internships around the world

A good internship can be the foundation of a great career. That's why AUT Internz places students and graduates with top companies in NZ, Canada and the USA – including Facebook, Paramount Recording Studios, the Sundance Institute, Oxfam, the Metropolitan Museum and Westpac Institutional Bank in New York.

A launchpad for entrepreneurs

Every entrepreneur starts somewhere. At AUT, the best place for aspiring entrepreneurs is CO.STARTERS@AUT. This nine-week programme helps you turn your entrepreneurial ideas into a viable business.

An outstanding learning environment

At AUT you study in an innovative and interactive environment that embraces creativity, collaboration and the sharing of ideas and culture. A number of our buildings have won prestigious architecture awards, and we're constantly improving our built environment to offer students the best possible learning experience.

Bachelor of Laws [LLB | AK1008]

Overview

AUT law graduates have established successful careers in a range of law firms, immigration consultancies and commercial establishments including Kensington Swan, Bell Gully, Buddle Findlay, Chapman Tripp, Meredith Connell, Langdon and Co Lawyers, Enterprise Law, Simpson Dowsett Mackie, Davies Law, Te Nahu Lovell & Co, Simpson Grierson, Kayes Fletcher Walker, Russell McVeagh and Wynyard Wood. Our interactive lectures and regular case-study workshops develop your ability to interpret, critically analyse, reason and deliver practical solutions to legal problems. You become an articulate communicator, and confident in your understanding of legal principles and their relevance to business and community. You also develop your critical thinking and problem-solving skills, your ability to act ethically, and your sense of community and professional responsibility.

Entry requirements

Minimum entry requirements

University Entrance or equivalent.

English language requirements

IELTS (Academic) of 6.0 overall with all bands 5.5 or higher; or equivalent.

Preferred New Zealand school subjects

Subjects that develop a very good standard of reading, oral and written English.

Don't meet the entry requirements?

Consider starting with our Certificate in Business.

What this qualification covers

Part I

You study three compulsory papers: Legal System, Legal Reasoning and Writing, and Personal Property. This makes up half of your first-year study (60 points). The other 60 points must be taken from another AUT degree, which gives you the opportunity to broaden your study and enables you to enrol in one of the double degrees.

If you complete your Part I papers with at least a B grade average in the compulsory law papers, you will be offered a place in Part II. Other students may also be eligible for Part II.

Bachelor of Laws

Overview continued

Strong connections with
the legal profession

Sam Parsons

4th-year student, Bachelor of Communication Studies and
Bachelor of Laws

"No matter which path I take, the law and communications degrees I'm studying provide different skills that will certainly help me in the future. That's why I decided to study double degrees. I'd recommend law because AUT has world-class professors teaching you. The modern approach AUT takes towards the law degree is fantastic, and it adapts to the constant change the legal profession undergoes. AUT's focus on giving students relevant skills for work is what makes it the university for the changing world. AUT's internship programmes – particularly for the communications degree – help students prepare for their futures and go forth as industry leaders before they've even graduated. AUT is modern, and it focuses on the student and the way the student learns. The interactive classes offer amazing communication between lecturers and students, which is hard to find at other universities. AUT is also well-known for having the friendliest student culture."

Part II, III and IV

In your second year, you study six further compulsory law papers: Law of Contract, Law of Torts, Constitutional Law, Real Property, Trusts and Company Law. In your third year you study Judicial Review of Administrative Action, Criminal Law, Advanced Private Law, Public International Law and choose the rest of your papers from law electives. In your final year you study Legal Ethics, as well as a selection of law electives.

Career opportunities

Graduates of AUT's Bachelor of Laws are eligible to gain admission as barristers and solicitors of the High Court of New Zealand on completion of their Professional Legal Studies course. As a lawyer you might practise in a wide range of legal areas including corporate law, commercial and intellectual property, family law, environmental law, criminal law, taxation and general practice.

Law graduates also move into roles that include:

- In-house lawyers in large New Zealand and multinational businesses and organisations
- Patent attorneys
- Policy advisors to central and local government
- Senior management roles in business
- Taxation practitioners in accountancy practices

Broaden your career options – study law and:

- Bachelor of Arts (double degrees)
- Bachelor of Business (double degrees)
- Bachelor of Communication Studies (double degrees)

This means that you complete the two degrees at the same time, in just over five years compared to the seven years it would take if you studied for each separately. Please refer to the following pages for more information.

AUT encourages early application. Places are limited.

1. All papers are available at the City Campus. Compulsory papers are also available at the South Campus.

Direct entry to Part II

AUT Law School welcomes applications for direct entry into Part II of the law degree from students who have:

- Obtained at least a B grade average¹ in their first-year law papers at another New Zealand law school, and
- Passed at least 120 points including the first-year law papers.

If you're offered direct entry to Part II from another New Zealand law school, you normally receive cross-credits for the following AUT papers:

- Legal System – 15 points
- Legal Reasoning and Writing – 30 points
- Plus 60 points of non-law papers in the first year of the AUT law degree.

You may still need to complete the Personal Property paper which is a 15-point Part I requirement. In the AUT law degree, this paper constitutes part of the property law requirement for the New Zealand Council of Legal Education. If you're a direct entry student, you need to complete this paper, in addition to the other requirements of the LLB, if you have not satisfied that requirement through a similar paper at your previous tertiary education institution.

Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

LLB(Hons) | AK1009

Further your legal research and writing skills, and make your CV stand out when you apply for highly competitive law jobs or clerkships. The Bachelor of Laws (Honours) is aimed at high-achieving students in the Bachelor of Laws who want to advance their skills.

Entry requirements

Completed Bachelor of Laws Parts I and II to the academic standard³ for honours.

English language requirements

IELTS (Academic) 6.5 overall with all bands 6.0 or higher; or equivalent.

What this qualification covers

The Bachelor of Laws (Honours) involves completing a research paper and a dissertation and may involve adding an extra semester to your Bachelor of Laws.

Parts I and II

Completion of the LLB to the required academic standard³.

Part III and IV and additional semester²

Completion of the LLB and the following LLB(Hons) papers:

- Research Paper
- Dissertation

1. The 540 points include 480 points from the LLB.

2. Most Bachelor of Laws (Honours) students complete the Research Paper in Part III, and complete the Dissertation paper in Part IV. Some students complete the dissertation paper in February of the year following Part IV.

Phillip Osborne

Barrister, Hamlin Law
Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

"Having to think on my feet keeps me stimulated. My role offers a lot of variety – client contact; submissions for District Court, High Court and Court of Appeal cases; reviewing large volumes of disclosure for District Court and High Court trials, negotiations with Police and Crown and regular appearances at the Auckland District Court for procedural hearings and Judge alone trials. I'm also the main point of contact for our parole clients and regularly visit prisons in the Auckland region to take their instructions. I probably wouldn't be able to complete submissions as efficiently without the practical approach AUT encourages. It was one of the things that attracted me to the AUT law degree. I also liked that all students have to complete a paper on intellectual property. Before studying law, I worked as a professional musician, so I already had an interest in the topic."

Papers

Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

Compulsory papers

Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours) students must complete the following compulsory papers as part of their qualification:

Part I

Legal System

An introduction to the New Zealand legal system; the nature, functions and sources of law; the relationship between law and society, Nga Tikanga Māori, and legal institutions and taxonomies including the role of the courts.

Legal Reasoning and Writing

Examines the judicial process and legal reasoning including case analysis and statutory interpretation, and introduces the essential skills of critical reasoning, legal writing, problem-solving and advocacy.

Personal Property

Introduces the concept of personal property and outlines the range of legal rights and duties associated with that concept. Intellectual property is also introduced. Compares personal property and real property and examines and analyses the concept of possession. The creation and transfer of personal property rights, the law of bailment and the notion of taking security over personal property are introduced and outlined.

Part II

Law of Contract

Examines the general principles that govern the law of contract in New Zealand. This will incorporate an inquiry into the principles of agency, and their interaction with contractual rules. These aims will require the application of case law from New Zealand and other jurisdictions, and relevant New Zealand legislation.

Law of Torts

Examines the principles and policy underpinning a range of torts. It will also consider the role of the accident compensation scheme in New Zealand.

Constitutional Law

The principles and workings of the New Zealand constitution, the institutions of government, and the role and significance of the Treaty of Waitangi, the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 and the Human Rights Act 1993.

Real Property

Examines the principles underpinning real property rights in New Zealand, with a focus on the place and function of real property principles and an evaluation of the scope and advantages of the New Zealand Torrens system.

Trusts

Study of the origins of trusts, and current rules and principles governing the creation and operation of trusts as a method of holding property by divided ownership. Uses contemporary factual problems as the basis for recognition of conduct that amounts to breach of trust or breach of fiduciary duty and equitable and trust law principles that can be applied to resolve such problems. Introduces wills and succession.

Company Law

An introduction to the fundamental issues surrounding the regulation of companies in New Zealand including company formation, company transactions, governance and internal and external company relationships.

Part III

Criminal Law

The general principles of criminal liability as they apply in New Zealand, an overview of the criminal justice system and criminal procedure in New Zealand, a consideration of selected crimes including various crimes against the person, and certain aspects of commercial crime including crimes involving computers, corporate crime and crimes involving intellectual property.

Judicial Review of Administrative Action

An examination of the key principles of judicial review of administrative action and legal controls on delegated legislative power, including substantive and procedural restraints on the exercise of public power and the regulation of relations between the citizen and the state.

Advanced Private Law

A capstone paper which introduces students to the justificatory idea of, and structural coherence and taxonomy of, the private law through analysis of the distinction between personal and proprietary rights, analysis of how the law of unjust enrichment has developed and how its place in the private law can be best appreciated only from its contextual fit with and relationship to other parts of the private law.

Public International Law

Examines fundamental principles of, and issues in, contemporary public international law. This paper will also provide background knowledge of the historical evolution of the nation-state system, as well as awareness of the possibilities for international legal reform.

Part IV

Legal Ethics

Legal ethics and professional responsibility, an introduction to ethical analysis and theories of ethics, the applicability of ethical and professional duties of practitioners (which will include, among other topics, conflicts of interest, confidentiality, duties to the court, duties of loyalty and fidelity), and the wider responsibilities of lawyers in the community.

Bachelor of Laws (Honours) papers

Research Paper

Familiarises students with the nature of legal argument and disputation in the context of legal research. Enables students to develop advanced research skills, focusing on research in and outside New Zealand and prepares students for the completion of the dissertation.

Dissertation

A substantial piece of original legal research leading to a written dissertation of no more than 10,000 words. The dissertation should aim to have the scope and depth of research found in an article published in a law journal of appropriate standing.

Doctor of Philosophy

PhD | AK3518

The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) is the University's highest qualification. The degree is undertaken by research only and leads to advanced academic and theoretical knowledge in a specialist area. The PhD is suitable for students who want to pursue an academic or research career, or a senior position in the public or private sector. Doctoral studies present you with the opportunity to generate new ideas that can benefit business and society. You will make a significant original contribution to knowledge and understanding in your field of study and meet recognised international standards for your work. Our academic supervisors are recognised world-class researchers in their fields who have the expert knowledge to guide and advise you throughout your PhD. The opportunities to apply the knowledge and skills you gain will be extensive, both in industry and academia.

Entry requirements

Minimum entry requirements

Must have completed the following in a specialisation appropriate to the proposed research:

- Master's degree with first-class or upper second-class honours OR
- Bachelor's degree with honours (equivalent to 4 years of study), normally with first-class or upper second-class honours

The programme must have included advanced learning in research and a research thesis/dissertation.

English language requirements

IELTS (Academic) 6.5 overall with 7.0 in Writing and all other bands 6.0 or higher; or equivalent.

Other requirements

Acceptance is subject to the availability of staff for supervision, prior research preparation and appropriate facilities.

Planning your PhD

You are required to prepare a brief proposal for your intended research, specifying the field of research and a general research question you wish to investigate. You should provide official copies of academic transcripts, and evidence of previous independent research outputs, like an honours-level dissertation or master's-level dissertation or thesis. You should also provide evidence of successful completion of studies in research methodology at a postgraduate level.

PhD research allowance

PhD research allowances are normally available to support PhD candidates with expenses associated with data collection and analysis, conference funding, and other resources.

Richard Pidgeon

Barrister

Doctor of Philosophy candidate

"I am a barrister with an academic bent, and doctoral study was a natural progression from my master's degree. My thesis topic is entitled 'Resolving religious property disputes in Godzone: creating an antipodean Autobahn', and considers how such disputes might be efficiently resolved by New Zealand Courts. My studies have helped me prepare arguments for my work and my work has informed my thesis. I continue to receive top-rate supervision with a 'roll-your-sleeves up and get stuck in' mentality and guidance in how to ethically conduct interviews with leaders of various faith communities. I seek to find out how they dealt with doctrinal divergence and schismatic episodes within their groups and what perils they may see on the horizon. I have appreciated the ability to obtain top-notch guidance and the flexibility of my supervisors, as well as having access to a really good internet research system with helpful library staff."

ACCEPT YOUR OFFER

University admission to AUT bachelor's degrees

For New Zealand citizens and residents and international students studying in a high school in New Zealand

To gain admission to bachelor's degrees, you must have met the requirements for University Entrance plus any specified admission requirements for a programme, such as specific subjects, portfolios and interviews.

For more information on entry requirements, including entry requirements for international students, refer to the AUT Calendar or visit www.aut.ac.nz/calendar

Please note: AUT, like all other New Zealand universities, is required to manage enrolments. This is because of government policies that restrict the number of funded places available for domestic students in tertiary education.

Admission categories

You may be granted University Entrance under one of the following categories:

- NCEA University Entrance
- Ad Eundem Statum admission (at an equivalent level) – this includes Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) and International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme (IB)
- Discretionary Entrance
- Special Admission

Common University Entrance requirements

STANDARD	NCEA	CIE	IB ²
Overall	Require NCEA level 3 certificate which consists of 80 credits, including at least 60 credits at level 3 or higher. Can include up to 20 credits at level 2. Note: Credits to achieve NCEA level 3 may include unit standards from non-approved subjects. Subject credits Total of 42 level 3 credits including: • 14 credits from one approved subject • 14 credits from a second approved subject • 14 credits from a third approved subject	A minimum of 120 points on the UCAS Tariff ¹ at A or AS level from an approved list (equivalent to NCEA approved subject list). Must include at least three subjects (excluding Thinking Skills) with grades D or above.	IB Diploma with minimum 24 points
Numeracy	At least 10 level 1 (or higher) numeracy credits (can be achieved through a range of subjects)	A minimum grade of D in IGCSE ³ mathematics or any mathematics subject at AS or A level.	Any mathematics subject – IB Group 5
Literacy	Total of 10 level 2 (or higher) literacy credits including: • 5 reading credits • 5 writing credits From specific standards in a range of NZQA English language rich subjects.	A minimum grade of E in English Language and/or English Literature subject at AS or A level.	Literature or language and literature (SL or HL) – IB Group 1, with English as the language.

1. UCAS (Universities and Colleges Admissions Services for the UK) Tariff = system which converts AS and A level grades into points.

2. New Zealand residents who have taken IB but have not been awarded the Diploma may apply for discretionary entrance.

3. IGCSE = International General Certificate of Secondary Education.

Where programmes require a specific subject, it is expected that a student will have achieved a minimum of 14 credits in that subject (unless indicated otherwise).

NCEA approved subjects

For a list of NCEA approved subjects for University Entrance visit the NZQA website, www.nzqa.govt.nz

AUT language rich subject list

Classical Studies, Drama, English, Geography, Health Education, History, History of Art, Media Studies, Social Studies, Te Reo Māori or Te Reo Rangatira.

Alternative pathways into AUT bachelor's degrees

Students who have just missed University Entrance or did not get into their chosen degree could consider enrolling in one of the foundation studies certificates offered at AUT. Please visit www.aut.ac.nz/apply

Discretionary Entrance

Discretionary Entrance is available to applicants who have attained a high level of achievement in Year 12 and want to undertake university study.

International students can't apply for Discretionary Entrance.

You can apply if you:

- Have not completed Year 13 in a New Zealand secondary school or have done Year 13 but not attempted to gain University Entrance
- Have not otherwise qualified for admission (or have attempted University Entrance)
- Are a domestic student (New Zealand or Australian citizen or permanent resident). If Australian, your most recent schooling must have been in New Zealand
- Are under 20 years of age on the first day of the semester in which you begin study and meet other requirements of the programme for which you apply

People who missed University Entrance in Year 13 may be considered for mid-year admission in the following year.

You can't apply for admission for Semester 1 if you studied in Year 13 after 1 June. However, you can apply for admission into Semester 2.

Minimum academic criteria for Discretionary Entrance

- NCEA level 2 certificate endorsed with minimum of Merit or CIE/IB equivalent
- Minimum of 14 credits in each of four NCEA level 2 (or higher) subjects, at least three of which must be on the approved subject list
- Meet UE literacy and numeracy standards, or their equivalent.

The application is a two-step process. First, you indicate you want to apply through Discretionary Entrance on the standard application form. If you meet the criteria you are sent a second form in which you provide further information and a school recommendation.

The recommendation will provide proof of your maturity, motivation, capability and readiness to undertake degree-level study and also verify that you were not enrolled in Year 13 beyond 1 June in the year prior to admission. Please refer to the AUT Calendar or visit www.aut.ac.nz/calendar

Please note: Applicants are considered on a case-by-case basis and must also meet other selection criteria for the programme for which they have applied. There is a non-refundable assessment fee of $50.00.

Admission at equivalent level (Ad Eundem Statum)

An applicant will be considered for Ad Eundem Statum admission if they:

- Have successfully gained University Entrance through CIE or IB or an approved qualification from a New Zealand secondary school of special character
- Have successfully completed a recognised foundation programme or other recognised tertiary qualification/ study of at least 120 points at level 3, or at least 60 points at level 4 in one course of study and have completed Year 13 at a NZ secondary school, or equivalent.
- Have qualifications from an overseas secondary school or tertiary institution deemed by AUT to be sufficient for entry into an undergraduate degree programme.

Please note: Applicants will be required to supply an official academic transcript with their application.

Bursary

If you sat Bursary (prior to 2004) rather than NCEA please refer to the AUT Calendar or visit www.aut.ac.nz/calendar

Special Admission

If you are over 20 years of age you can apply through Special Admission for degree-level study without a University Entrance qualification, if you are a New Zealand citizen or resident. You must be 20 years of age on or before the first day of the semester in which the programme commences. An interview may be required and your ability to succeed in your chosen programme will be taken into consideration.

English language requirements

If you don't have English as your first language, you may have to show evidence of your English language skills.

International students studying at secondary school and applying for University Entrance must achieve UE Literacy through New Zealand secondary school qualifications NCEA, CIE or IB. IELTS can't be substituted.

In all other cases another form of English language testing is required. Minimum IELTS requirements for each programme are included on the relevant pages in this publication. For other recognised English tests and more information, visit www.aut.ac.nz/englishrequirements

International students

Contact us for information regarding studying at AUT if you're not a citizen or permanent resident of New Zealand or Australia, or a citizen of the Cook Islands, Niue or Tokelau islands.

Visit www.aut.ac.nz for entry requirements for specific countries.

Student loans and allowances¹

If you are a full-time domestic student, you may qualify for a student loan or allowance. Student loans and allowances are administered and paid by StudyLink. The application process can take some time, so it's a good idea to apply early. You can apply for a student loan or student allowance before your enrolment at AUT is complete.

To find out more call 0800 88 99 00 or visit www.studylink.govt.nz

1. For domestic students only

Help with planning and budgeting

We know that studying can be hard on your finances, and we can help students manage their money and stay within budget. We also assist students in financial hardship through food and transport grants, and provide assistance with student loans and allowances.
