Short summary of your practice (150 words):

Te Ataata Residency Programme

The duration of the residency is up to eight weeks (minimum six weeks), commencing 8 July and finishing on 30 August 2024 (plus one week before or after these dates are negotiable).

We welcome applications that involve two practitioners / researchers. However, this residency programme funds one resident at Auckland University of Technology in NZ. If you require one additional person to support the research project, this will be at your expense.

Disclaimer

We accept applications for up to two practitioners/researchers under two conditions:

1. Justified plainly in the project proposal.
2. The residents agree the extra costs such as flights and accommodation for a second person attached to the project will not be funded by the programme.

☐ 'We acknowledge the above disclaimer, and we are willing to finance the extra costs resulting from two people participating in the programme'.
