

The AUT Centre for Screen Practice Research (SPR@AUT) invites you to:

Scriptwriting Workshop: Crafting Compelling Narratives

Join us for an interactive scriptwriting workshop designed to elevate your storytelling skills and creativity. Led by our distinguished visiting scholar Prof Craig Batty, this session aims to guide aspiring students, academics, researchers, postgraduate researchers, or anyone interested in creative writing and scriptwriting through the art and craft of creating compelling narratives for screen.

This workshop is ideal for scriptwriters at all levels, from beginners looking to learn the fundamentals to experienced writers seeking to refine their craft, as well as academics interested in the study of narrative structures.

Prof Craig Batty is the author:

- Creative Screenwriter: Exercises to Expand Your Craft: Exercises to Expand Your Craft
- Writing for the screen: Creative and Critical Approaches
- Movies That Move Us: Screenwriting and the Power of the Protagonist's Journey

Date: Thursday 18 April

Time: 2-3.30pm

Venue: WG126, AUT, city campus

Registration

Register by responding to this form: <https://forms.office.com/r/arjZBwY5uC>

Attendance is free.

Contact Information

For further details, please contact spr@aut.ac.nz

The AUT Centre for Screen Practice Research (SPR@AUT)

School of Communication Studies

Auckland University of Technology (AUT)

<https://www.aut.ac.nz/study/study-options/communication-studies/research/aut-centre-for-screen-practice-research>