

TO ERR IS HUMAN?

Professional Disciplinary Tribunals: Research and Practice

Auckland University of Technology
15 February 2019

Proudly supported by the School of Law, Faculty of Health and Environmental Sciences
& School of Education at AUT

Friday, 15 February 2019

8:30-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:15	Welcome and Introduction Kate Diesfeld, AUT
9:15-9:45	KEYNOTE SESSION Disciplinary Proceedings for Mental Health and Substance Use Issues: Comparisons Across Professions Professor Bernadette McSherry, University of Melbourne
9:45-10:15	Insights and Research Opportunities: Health Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal Deputy Chair Maria Dew
10:15-10:45	New Zealand's HPDT: An Analysis of Decisions 2004-2014 Including the Relevance of Health Issues Lois Surgenor*, Kate Diesfeld, Michael Ip* and Kate Kersey
10:45-11:00	Morning Tea
11:00-11:15	Who Receives Name Suppression by the HPDT and Why? Kate Diesfeld*, Lois Surgenor, Michael Ip* and Kate Kersey
11:15-11:30	Illuminating Underlying Factors in Disciplinary Actions of Rest Home Nurses. Kate Kersey*, Kate Diesfeld, Lois Surgenor and Michael Ip
11:30-11:45	HPCAA (2003) Notification about Psychologists in New Zealand: Characteristics and Outcomes of a 12 year cohort 2004-2015 Lois Surgenor* and Kate Diesfeld
11:45-12:15	Barriers to Access to Justice in the Health and Disability Commissioner Complaints Process Prof Jo Manning, The University of Auckland
12:15-1:15	Lunch

* Presenting Authors

6.5 Continual Professional Development Hours

TO ERR IS HUMAN?

Professional Disciplinary Tribunals: Research and Practice

Auckland University of Technology
15 February 2019

*Proudly supported by the School of Law, Faculty of Health and Environmental Sciences
& School of Education at AUT*

1:15-1:45	Insights and Research Opportunities: Education Council Disciplinary Tribunal Chair Theo Baker
1:45-2:00	An Initial Analysis of Teachers' Disiplinary Patterns in New Zealand Teachers Disciplinary Tribunal Kate Diesfeld, AUT
2:00-2:30	Emerging patters in the Education Council Disciplinary Tribunal Decisions 2016-2017 Marta Rychert* and Kate Diesfeld
2:30-3:00	A Lawyer's Perspective on Teachers' Disciplinary Processes: Areas for Future Research. Julia McCook-Weir, Education Council New Zealand
3:00-3:15	Afternoon Break
3:15-3:45	Insights and Research Opportunities: Lawyers and Conveyancers Disciplinary Tribunal Chair, Her Honour Judge Dale Clarkson
3:45-4:00	Lawyers and Health Impairment: What Lessons are Illuminated in the NZLCDT Cases? Jennifer Moore*, Donna Buckingham and Kate Diesfeld
4:00-4:15	Vulnerable Clients and the NZ Legal Profession: A Qualitative Analysis of NZLCDT Cases from 2011-2017 Chris Forster*, Jennifer Moore, Kate Diesfeld and Marta Rychert
4:15-4:30	Vulnerability in the New South Wales Legal Profession: Lessons from Tribunal Decisions Chris Forster*, Jennifer Moore and Kate Diesfeld
4:30-4:45	Reflections from the Tribunal Chairs
4:45-5:00	Tribunal Conference Closing