

Gender & Diversity Research Group Postgraduate Student Symposium Call for abstracts

In this call for postgraduate research presentations, we wish to encourage discussion on a broad range of research areas and topics.

We encourage conceptual, theoretical and empirical papers from all postgraduate researchers (dissertation, thesis and doctoral researchers), on research around issues related to gender and diversity, as well as other discipline and subject areas. We are interested in hearing from a variety of discipline, interdisciplinary and methodological perspectives. Postgraduate researchers who are at the start of their research journey (e.g. just completed PGR1 or PGR2), or are part way through or have completed their study are invited to take part in this symposium. The aim of this day is to provide a safe and supportive environment for all postgraduate students to share their research interests.

To finish we will also endeavour to have an open facilitated discussion on post-research careers 'Where to from here'?

If you are interested in presenting at this postgraduate research symposium, please send a short abstract (200 words maximum) to barbara.myers@aut.ac.nz and irene.ryan@aut.ac.nz by Friday 22 November.

In your abstract submission, please include:

- Research topic or question
- Stage of research (e.g. Completed PGR1, starting analysis, just submitted)
- Rationale for undertaking the research
- Literature
- Methodology
- Supervisors
