AUT GRADUATE

At AUT we know that all of our students arrive with so much potential. It's our job to help them unlock that potential and use it to find the greatness within them. For many of our graduates, it was an influential lecturer, a conversation with a student mentor, or an educational experience inside or outside the classroom that gave them clarity and opened up new possibilities.

Some of our great graduates now share their stories of how their time at AUT helped them uncover what drives them and inspired them to turn that passion into something rewarding and meaningful.

1 Our City Campus is in the heart of Auckland's CBD 2 & 3 You have access to fantastic facilities and software including the latest video recording equipment and a specially designed sound room

A world-class university environment

We're proud to be one of the world's best modern universities – Times Higher Education has ranked us as the top millennial university in Australasia and we're in the top 1% (251–300) of universities in the world. We encourage innovation and entrepreneurship, and the ability to explore new technologies, challenge routine thinking and solve problems in new ways. Many of our courses incorporate digital concepts into everyday learning and teaching. As a student at Te Ara Poutama, you have access to the latest facilities and software to create apps, e-books and films that will help you tell the stories that matter to you and your whānau. Our dual boot lab, for example, is a great place to develop high-quality audio-visual apps and iBooks. We also have the latest video recording hardware and software, and a specially designed sound room where students can record voiceovers.

Creating world-ready graduates

AUT's mission is to create great graduates, and each member of our staff contributes to this. We offer exceptional learning experiences that prepare students to be successful wherever in the world their career may take them. Study with us and you not only learn academic knowledge related to your discipline, but also gain experience of the wider world and valuable industry contacts. We know that to create truly great graduates, we must do more than get them ready for their career; we must get them ready for the world.

That's why workplace experience is a key part of both the Bachelor of Māori Development and Bachelor of Arts, and your final year includes a work placement in radio, TV, film production, education, government, or a tribal or community organisation.

Innovative and relevant research

AUT is ranked first in New Zealand for global research impact by Times Higher Education. We deliver leading research in a number of areas within Māori and indigenous development, working closely with academics and organisations from around New Zealand and the world. As a postgraduate student you work closely with academic staff who are known as experts in their field – from Māori business and entrepreneurship to Māori media and from Mātauranga Māori to New Zealand history and the Treaty of Waitangi. Our research also feeds back into the classroom, and students can contribute to and learn from these research discoveries.

Committed to te reo Māori

You'll learn te reo Māori in a dynamic and interactive way, and our innovative courses introduce you to te ao Māori – the language and the culture that surrounds it.

Our marae: Ngā Wai o Horotiu

The gateway to AUT, Ngā Wai o Horotiu marae is located on the City Campus. Ngā Wai o Horotiu marae is a whānau, cultural and spiritual centre. It embraces the history of Māori and welcomes the diverse cultures at AUT.

The marae is one of the ways AUT acknowledges the importance of the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi and expresses our deeply held belief that AUT is a centre of learning for all peoples, but also a place where Māori have a special and distinct role.

Our marae's whareniui (meeting house) was named Te Pūrengi by the local iwi Ngāti Whātua. The name represents the ropes which hold the mast of a waka in place. Te Pūrengi is the focal point of Ngā Wai o Horotiu.

Our wharekai (dining room) is called te Kaipara after the Kaipara Harbour. Ngāti Whātua traversed the Kaipara from the North. The word 'para' is a reference to the para fern which is a traditional Māori delicacy. Kai-para means 'to eat the para fern'. It's a fitting name for our dining room. Kaipara – the house of gourmet food.

You can find Ngā Wai o Horotiu on the corner of Wellesley and St Paul Street in Auckland.

Life at AUT

AUT is a modern and innovative university with endless opportunities and a supportive culture that celebrates diversity. Studying at AUT is your chance to meet new people and develop lifelong skills, while getting the support you need to succeed at university and beyond.

We're proactive in enabling all students to succeed, and our comprehensive student support services ensure that you have an amazing experience inside and outside the classroom.

We're here to help

No matter what the problem, our Student Hub advisors are here to help. You can find a Student Hub on each campus and our specialist staff can help with anything from enrolment and student ID cards to academic and personal support, fees and financial support, and services for our diverse student communities including the international, disability and rainbow community.

Dedicated support for new students

From Orientation to our many academic and cultural support programmes, our Student Services team is there to make starting out as a new student as easy as possible.

Supporting you into your future career

The AUT Employability and Careers team prepares you for your future career by developing job search, interview and networking skills, building your personal brand and more.

Connections to the workplace

We run a full programme of employer presentations, events and workshops throughout the year – on campus and online – with employers offering insights into their industries and recruiting future employees. Four graduate job boards, including an international one, offer great work opportunities for AUT graduates and interns.

Gain an edge on the competition

The AUT Edge and Beyond AUT Awards help you gain an extra edge in the competitive marketplace by developing highly employable skills through volunteering, leadership and employability activities.

International study opportunities

An international student exchange offers an amazing opportunity to study overseas as part of your degree. Study for a semester or a year at one of our partner universities around the world, immerse yourself in another culture, make lifelong friends and get international experience before you graduate.

Helping you succeed in your studies

Our library and learning support team offers a wide range of services and resources designed to help develop your academic skills.

The Library also runs a range of workshops to help you get the most out of your studies, and our peer mentoring programme provides academic support from others who have already completed the same course.

Top internships around the world

A good internship can be the foundation of a great career. That's why AUT Internz places students and graduates with top companies in New Zealand, North America, Asia and the UK – including Paramount Recording Studios, the Sundance Institute and Westpac Institutional Bank in New York.

A launchpad for entrepreneurs

Every entrepreneur starts somewhere. At AUT, the best place for aspiring entrepreneurs is CO.STARTERS@AUT. This ten-week programme helps you turn your entrepreneurial ideas into a viable business.

An outstanding learning environment

At AUT you study in an innovative and interactive environment that embraces creativity, collaboration, and the sharing of ideas and culture. A number of our buildings have won prestigious architecture awards, and we're constantly improving our built environment to offer students the best possible learning experience.

Free access to digital tools and resources

We offer students all the digital tools needed to succeed, including free wifi on campus, the full Office 365 suite for up to five devices and free access to LinkedIn Learning, a world-leading online learning platform.

Getting involved in campus life

Joining a club is a great way to meet like-minded people and make lifelong friends outside of lectures. Choose from a range of student-run social, sustainability, academic and cultural clubs – a great way to meet new people, participate in events and get involved in campus life.

Play sport or join the gym

AUT is New Zealand's leading sports university, with state-of-the-art sports facilities, on-campus gyms, and a huge number of sports teams and events. As an AUT student you can participate in a wide variety of sports, from social on-campus games to elite international competitions.

Holistic approach to wellness

AUT offers comprehensive medical, and counselling and mental health services. We also run Bright Side events where students can develop better self-knowledge and a greater sense of purpose and meaning in their lives.

Disability student support and resources

Our Disability Support team is committed to helping you participate as fully as you can in learning and student life. We work with students before they start at AUT to help identify their specific needs and ensure they're set up for success.

Getting around

Whether it's finding your way to campus or getting around between lectures, AUT offers a range of resources to help you navigate your new environment, including shuttle buses that travel between campuses and interactive online maps.

Safe and friendly campuses

We make sure our students are safe when they're on campus. Our friendly security staff are available day and night to help if you have any concerns.

Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairoa
Project Lead, Wai Research, Te Whānau o
Waipareira Trust
Bachelor of Arts in Māori Development

"I had always wanted to attend university in my adult life, but children and work always made it seem impossible. When the first-year fees-free policy happened, I decided it was time to bite the bullet and have a go. I was looking to do a te reo Māori class and came across AUT's Māori development degree. I absolutely loved the experience and felt very grateful to be able to finally tick one of my bucket list dreams off the list! I would encourage anyone who has been keen to attend university but nervous. You might find it intimidating to have a go, or like me you might find it an awesome experience. I'm now looking into applying for a master's degree to further my career opportunities, and now have the confidence and knowledge that I will be well supported to achieve my next goal."

Do you enjoy learning about people and places at an individual, national or international level? Want to learn how to use this knowledge to make a difference in our increasingly globalised society? With the AUT Bachelor of Arts you can choose from majors in areas as diverse as Māori development, languages, criminology, psychology, event management and education. It's great preparation for a huge range of careers, and you can build your degree in a way that suits you – study a single or a double major, select from a wide range of minors or add elective courses from another area of study.

Throughout your study you'll develop effective communication, critical thinking and analysis skills, as well as the ability to research and present professionally. These skills are key to any professional role. Your final year includes valuable workplace experience, working on a project or event, or at an organisation related to your major.

Entry requirements

Minimum entry requirements

University Entrance or equivalent

Useful New Zealand school subjects

All subjects are useful, in particular Art History, Classical Studies, English, Geography, History, Media Studies and other languages.

English language requirements

IELTS (Academic) 6.0 overall with all bands 5.5 or higher; or equivalent.

Don't meet the entry requirements?

Consider starting with our Diploma in Arts (see page 20).

Recognition of Prior Learning

A feature of our programmes is Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), a system that provides credit for your previous learning and experience. You may be able to get formal credit if you have completed a university or technical institute course that closely matches the level and content of an AUT course. You normally need to have completed this course within the last five years. If you have a variety of learning and experience (for example professional development workshops and work experience) that matches the learning within a course, you may be able to apply for non-formal credit.

Major

- Māori Development

Other majors within the Bachelor of Arts are:

- Chinese Studies
- Conflict Resolution
- Creative Writing
- Criminology and Criminal Justice
- Culinary Arts
- Economics
- Education
- English and New Media Studies
- Event Management
- International Studies
- Interpreting
- Japanese Studies
- New Zealand Sign Language and Deaf Studies
- New Zealand Sign Language – English Interpreting
- Psychology
- Social Sciences

What this qualification covers

Year 1

Your first year begins with learning in a digital world, incorporating aspects of applied media. You can explore Māori in popular culture as well as te reo Māori.

Year 2

In your second year you continue the te reo Māori journey. You also complete courses from your chosen minor or elective courses in your area of interest.

Year 3

In your final year you develop research techniques to prepare you for your workplace experience (the Te Ara Poutama Work Integrated Learning course) in your last semester.

Workplace experience is the final part of your degree. This is a supervised work placement related to your major(s), for an organisation of your choice.

In Year 3, you also study any remaining major or minor courses as well as electives.

Recent placements included:

- Community organisations
- Government agencies
- Teaching across all sectors

Huge opportunities for workplace experience and international study exchanges

3rd-year student, Bachelor of Arts in Māori Development

"My old man and I went to AUT's open day, AUT LIVE, where we talked to quite a few people. I first looked at communication studies, then Māori media and eventually settled on Māori development. I had grown up bilingual and my dad is the general manager of an iwi trust. I've always been around Māori language and culture, and have always found it interesting. I really enjoy the variety of stuff I've been able to study as part of the Bachelor of Arts, from history and economics, to culture and society. I love learning and I like the freedom to study what I find interesting. I love researching and I know I want to do a Master of Arts when I finish my degree, and probably a PhD as well."

Double your career opportunities with conjoint or double degree programmes

Bachelor of Arts in Māori Development and Social Sciences

"I had heard from whānau and friends that AUT has a really good support network, especially at Te Ara Poutama, the Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Development. The vibe at AUT is amazing and you feel like you can achieve anything. My highlight at AUT was supporting other Māori students as a tāura kaiwhatu, Māori learning mentor. I love helping my people because I know with a little support and a nudge in the right direction they can achieve anything they set their minds to. Before I started at AUT, I had a fear of speaking in front of an audience. Now I constantly present my businesses to big organisations. Thank you AUT for teaching me how to speak confidently in public."

Double your career options – study the Bachelor of Arts and:

- Bachelor of Computer and Information Sciences (conjoint)
- Bachelor of Business (conjoint)
- Bachelor of Laws (double degree)

Today, standing out from the crowd is more important than ever. Conjoint programmes, double degrees and second majors double your knowledge and opportunities, but don't take double the time to complete.

Conjoint programmes

You study two degrees at the same time in a single programme of study. It's usually possible to complete two three-year degrees in four to five years. You need to maintain a B grade average across all courses and do courses from each degree every year.

Double degrees

The difference between double degrees and conjoint programmes is that in the double degrees you apply for and enrol separately in each of the two degrees. If you're considering doing this, it's important that you contact AUT to discuss your plans. Double degrees can be completed either one after the other or concurrently.

Additional majors and minors

When you take a second major from the majors available in your degree this is called a double major. If you take the second major from another AUT degree this is called an additional major. Minors are also available in these and some other subjects. Adding a second major or a minor allows you to study another area that interests you from a wide range of subjects, so long as your timetable permits.

Refer to page 19 for minors you can take as part of this degree.

AUT encourages early application. Places are limited.

Louis Inn Tze Ngā-Tai e Rua Wee

Residential Youth Worker, Ko Tāku Reo Deaf Education Centre New Zealand
Bachelor of Māori Development in Māori Media

"I chose this degree because I wanted to study something that would allow me to be creative, use my te reo Māori, and learn more about te ao Māori and kaupapa Māori. I loved being in a kaupapa Māori environment where everyone was so proudly Māori. This experience inspired me to strengthen my own reo and I took a gap year and studied abroad in Shanghai for half a year to learn Mandarin Chinese. It also allowed me time to start learning the other official language of Aotearoa; New Zealand Sign Language (NZSL). Being at AUT has enabled me to learn how to instil and practise kaupapa Māori in whatever I do. I work with many Deaf Māori youth in my current role, so an awareness and understanding of te ao Māori is important, as well as being able to help facilitate things like mihi whakatau."

There has been a huge shift in the media landscape in the last two decades, and there are many opportunities for people interested in Māori media. A strong foundation in te reo Māori and basic tikanga is highly valued in this field – regardless of ethnicity. That's why graduates of AUT's Māori Media major have an edge in the competitive media industry. Study with us and you gain insight into the fast-paced media industry, as well as a sound understanding of te reo me ngā tikanga Māori. We're proud of our innovative and supportive learning environment. Throughout your studies, you could build web applications, make films or design interactive multimedia from a bicultural perspective.

Major

- Māori Media

What this major covers

Year 1

Your first year introduces you to Māori media studies, helping you develop media production skills from a kaupapa Māori perspective.

The course Learning in a Digital World develops your academic literacy, technological skills and critical thinking, focusing on Māori specific themes.

This year we also advise you on the elective courses you can choose in Year 2 and 3. For a list of elective courses refer to page 18.

We encourage you to choose Māori development and te reo Māori courses for your electives, as they cover skills that are crucial for a career in Māori media.

Year 2

In Year 2, you develop your teamwork skills by creating a film, including producing, writing, directing, editing and post-production with a strong Māori or indigenous theme.

Year 3

In Year 3, you focus on developing research techniques and advanced technical skills in preparation for your workplace experience (the Te Ara Poutama Work Integrated Learning course) in your last semester. Your workplace experience is a great opportunity to apply the knowledge and theory you've learnt in the classroom.

Recent placements included:

- Māori Television

Bachelor of Māori Development in Māori Media

"I had been interested in media and creating my own stories for a long time, and I decided to study at AUT because I knew it was the best hands-on university in Auckland. At first I was looking at studying communication studies, but after attending the AUT open day, AUT LIVE, I ended up at Te Ara Poutama, AUT's Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Development. There I discovered the Māori media degree, which combined my love for media and the Māori culture. I knew immediately that this was the degree for me. A favourite highlight of my studies was creating a documentary with my friends on how attitudes towards te reo Māori can hinder its growth. I was extremely proud of the project and with the A+ grade we received."

Minors

You can tailor your Bachelor of Arts degree to your interest and include one or two of our minors as part of your degree.

Digital Cultures

Get the digital media skills you need to make an impact in the world with a minor in digital cultures. Investigate the role that digital applications play in culture and society, and design, create and publish a wide range of e-books and apps.

History

Think critically about the past and how it influences the present and future with a minor in history. We have a wide variety of papers available with the benefit of being able to study fully online or on campus.

Popular Culture and Performance

Engage thoughtfully and critically with the experiences and materials of everyday life with a minor in popular culture and performance. Explore the power and role of film, song and television in media and the influence they have in society.

Te reo Māori

Learn the indigenous language of Aotearoa and gain access to te ao Māori – the Māori worldview, with our papers in te reo Māori. Study in an engaging environment and learn from Kaiako (lecturers) who are passionate about the revitalisation of the language.

Other minor options

You can also choose to study a major or minor from another programme at AUT as part of your Bachelor of Arts. To see the wide range of majors and minors available visit aut.ac.nz/minors

Master of Arts in Māori Development
with First Class Honours
Bachelor of Māori Development

“My research explored Te Ruki Kawiti’s 1846 final speech, known as Te Tangi o Kawiti – said after the signing of Te Tiriti o Waitangi in 1840 and the battle of Ruapekapeka in 1845, and its impact on resistance activities and the relationship between the Crown and Ngāti Hine, particularly in the Treaty settlement process. I hope my research encourages other Māori, Tangata Whenua and indigenous whānau to think about what research means to them and their whānau. The Master of Arts is crafted so you learn and can apply the learning directly to your research topic. It was challenging at times but I’ve learnt so much.”

Master of Arts Māori Development

MA | AK3689

The Master of Arts is a programme of advanced study and research. It’s designed to support your particular research interests, and tailored to your individual learning needs. The learning environment is wānanga based, encourages inclusivity and discipline, and is informed by Māori beliefs and values.

"I obtained my bachelor's and master's degrees in Colombia, and I love academia and teaching. When my husband and I were planning to move to New Zealand with our children we realised this was a good opportunity for me to pursue my professional goals. My PhD supervisor – Professor Sharon Mazer from Te Ara Poutama, AUT's Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Development – was working at AUT and I knew that she had to be the one to guide me during my research. It has been the best decision ever. My research is part of the developing conversation about the relationship between theatre and violence in Colombia, and internationally. I want to propose a different approach to see violence. The performance of violence can be analysed theatrically – which is to say, politically – and then redressed through social action."

Doctor of Philosophy

PhD | AK3518

The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) is the University's highest qualification. The degree is undertaken by research only and leads to advanced academic and theoretical knowledge in a specialist area. The PhD is suitable for students who want to pursue an academic or research career, or a senior position in the public or private sector. Doctoral studies present you with the opportunity to generate new ideas that can benefit business and society. You will make a significant original contribution to knowledge and understanding in your field of study and meet recognised international standards for your work. Our academic supervisors are recognised world-class researchers in their fields who have the expert knowledge to guide and advise you throughout your PhD. The opportunities to apply the knowledge and skills you gain will be extensive, both in industry and academia.

Entry requirements

Minimum entry requirements

Must normally have completed the following in a specialisation appropriate to the proposed research:

- Master's degree with first-class or second-class (first division) honours OR
- Bachelor's degree with honours (equivalent to four years of study), normally with first-class or second-class (first division) honours

The degree should include advanced learning in research, execution of a research project and a written report on the research.

English language requirements

IELTS (Academic) 6.5 overall with 7.0 in Writing and all other bands 6.0 or higher; or equivalent.

Other requirements

Acceptance is subject to the availability of staff for supervision, prior research preparation and appropriate facilities.

Planning your PhD

You are required to prepare a brief proposal for your intended research, specifying the field of research and a general research question you wish to investigate. You should provide official copies of academic transcripts, and evidence of previous independent research outputs, like an honours-level dissertation or master's-level dissertation or thesis. You should also provide evidence of successful completion of studies in research methodology at a postgraduate level.

PhD research allowance

PhD research allowances are normally available to support PhD candidates with expenses associated with data collection and analysis, conference funding, and other resources.

University admission to AUT bachelor's degrees

For New Zealand citizens and residents and international students studying in a high school in New Zealand

To gain admission to bachelor's degrees, you must have met the requirements for University Entrance plus any specified admission requirements for a programme, such as specific subjects, portfolios and interviews.

For more information on entry requirements, including entry requirements for international students, refer to the AUT Calendar or visit aut.ac.nz/calendar

Please note: AUT, like all other New Zealand universities, is required to manage enrolments. This is because of government policies that restrict the number of funded places available for domestic students in tertiary education.

Admission categories

You may be granted University Entrance under one of the following categories:

- NCEA University Entrance
- Ad Eundem Statum admission (at an equivalent level) – this includes Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) and International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme (IB)
- Discretionary Entrance
- Special Admission

Common University Entrance requirements

STANDARD	NCEA	CIE	IB ²
Overall	Require NCEA level 3 certificate which consists of 80 credits, including at least 60 credits at level 3 or higher. Can include up to 20 credits at level 2. Note: Credits to achieve NCEA level 3 may include unit standards from non-approved subjects. Subject credits Total of 42 level 3 credits including: • 14 credits from one approved subject • 14 credits from a second approved subject • 14 credits from a third approved subject	A minimum of 120 points on the UCAS Tariff ¹ at A or AS level from an approved list (equivalent to NCEA approved subject list). Must include at least three subjects (excluding Thinking Skills) with grades D or above.	IB Diploma with minimum 24 points
Numeracy	At least 10 level 1 (or higher) numeracy credits (can be achieved through a range of subjects)	A minimum grade of D in IGCSE ³ mathematics or any mathematics subject at AS or A level.	Any mathematics subject – IB Group 5
Literacy	Total of 10 level 2 (or higher) literacy credits including: • 5 reading credits • 5 writing credits From specific standards in a range of NZQA English language rich subjects.	A minimum grade of E in English Language and/or English Literature subject at AS or A level.	Literature or language and literature (SL or HL) – IB Group 1, with English as the language.

1. UCAS (Universities and Colleges Admissions Services for the UK) Tariff = system which converts AS and A level grades into points.

2. New Zealand residents who have taken IB but have not been awarded the Diploma may apply for discretionary entrance.

3. IGCSE = International General Certificate of Secondary Education.

Where programmes require a specific subject, it is expected that a student will have achieved a minimum of 14 NCEA credits in that subject (or equivalent), unless indicated otherwise.

NCEA approved subjects

For a list of NCEA approved subjects for University Entrance visit the NZQA website, nzqa.govt.nz

AUT language rich subject list

Art History, Business Studies, Classical Studies, Drama, Economics, English, Geography, Health Education, History, Media Studies, Physical Education, Social Studies, Te Reo Māori, Te Reo Rangatira.

Discretionary Entrance

Discretionary Entrance is available to applicants who have attained a high level of achievement in Year 12 and want to undertake university study.

International students can't apply for Discretionary Entrance.

You can apply if you:

- Have not completed Year 13 in a New Zealand secondary school or have done Year 13 but not attempted to gain University Entrance
- Have not otherwise qualified for admission (or have attempted University Entrance)
- Are a domestic student (New Zealand or Australian citizen or permanent resident). If Australian, your most recent schooling must have been in New Zealand
- Are under 20 years of age on the first day of the semester in which you begin study and meet other requirements of the programme for which you apply

People who missed University Entrance in Year 13 may be considered for mid-year admission in the following year.

You can't apply for admission for Semester 1 if you studied in Year 13 after 1 June. However, you can apply for admission into Semester 2.

Minimum academic criteria for Discretionary Entrance

- NCEA level 2 certificate endorsed with minimum of Merit or CIE/IB equivalent
- Minimum of 14 credits in each of four NCEA level 2 (or higher) subjects, at least three of which must be on the approved subject list
- Meet UE literacy and numeracy standards, or their equivalent.

The application is a two-step process. First, you indicate you want to apply through Discretionary Entrance on the standard application form. If you meet the criteria you are sent a second form in which you provide further information and a school recommendation.

The recommendation will provide proof of your maturity, motivation, capability and readiness to undertake degree-level study and also verify that you were not enrolled in Year 13 beyond 1 June in the year prior to admission. Please refer to the AUT Calendar or visit aut.ac.nz/calendar

Please note: Applicants are considered on a case-by-case basis and must also meet other selection criteria for the programme for which they have applied. There is a non-refundable assessment fee of $50.00.

Admission at equivalent level (Ad Eundem Statum)

An applicant will be considered for Ad Eundem Statum admission if they:

- Have successfully gained University Entrance through CIE or IB or an approved qualification from a New Zealand secondary school of special character
- Have successfully completed a recognised foundation programme or other recognised tertiary qualification/study of at least 120 points at level 3, or at least 60 points at level 4 in one course of study and have completed Year 13 at a NZ secondary school, or equivalent.
- Have qualifications from an overseas secondary school or tertiary institution deemed by AUT to be sufficient for entry into an undergraduate degree programme.

Please note: Applicants will be required to supply an official academic transcript with their application.

Bursary

If you sat Bursary (prior to 2004) rather than NCEA please refer to the AUT Calendar or visit aut.ac.nz/calendar

Special Admission

New Zealand citizens or residents who are over 20 years of age on or before the first day of semester can apply for degree-level entry through Special Admission.

English language requirements

If you don't have English as your first language, you may have to show evidence of your English language skills.

International students studying at secondary school and applying for University Entrance must achieve UE Literacy through New Zealand secondary school qualifications NCEA, CIE or IB. IELTS can't be substituted.

In all other cases another form of English language testing is required. Minimum IELTS requirements for each programme are included on the relevant pages in this publication. For other recognised English tests and more information, visit aut.ac.nz/englishrequirements

International students

Contact us for information regarding studying at AUT if you're not a citizen or permanent resident of New Zealand or Australia, or a citizen of the Cook Islands, Niue or Tokelau islands.

Visit aut.ac.nz for entry requirements for specific countries.

If you have any questions, you can contact us at aut.ac.nz/enquire

Fees & scholarships

Cost is an important factor when thinking about university study. This page gives you an idea of the approximate tuition fees at AUT, and different options to help you fund your education including scholarships, student loans and allowances.

To give you an idea of approximate costs, the 2021 tuition fees are shown below (based on full-time study and completing 120 points per year). All fees are in NZ dollars and include GST. The 2022 tuition fees will be advertised on aut.ac.nz/fees as soon as they have been set.

Free fees for your university study

Eligible domestic students starting tertiary education receive one year of full-time study fees-free¹.

To check if you're eligible for fees-free study in 2022 visit aut.ac.nz/fees

1. Domestic students only, not available to international students.

Scholarships and awards

Scholarships and awards are a great way to fund your university study. There is a wide range of scholarships and awards available to AUT students at all stages of their study. Visit the scholarships website for a current list of scholarships offered by AUT and external funders, as well as application forms and closing dates. You can also contact AUT's Scholarships Office for advice on scholarships, awards and the scholarship application process.

Support for scholarship students

Undergraduate scholarship students – whether the scholarship was awarded for academic endeavour or for excellence in sports, culture or leadership – have access to an extensive programme of support, including professional development and networking opportunities, and one-on-one support.

Student loans and allowances¹

If you are a full-time domestic student, you may qualify for a student loan or allowance. Student loans and allowances are administered and paid by StudyLink. The application process can take some time, so it's a good idea to apply early. You can apply for a student loan or student allowance before your enrolment at AUT is complete.

To find out more call 0800 88 99 00 or visit studylink.govt.nz

1. For domestic students only
