

Dialogues Screen Practice Postgraduate Symposium 2022

The AUT Centre for Screen Practice Research would like to invite you to the Postgraduate Symposium in screen practice research. This year it will be a hybrid, both kano ki te kano ki (face-to-face) and online. Join us to hear from postgraduate students studying any aspects of film, filmmaking, screen cultures, screen production, screen practice, and creative practice research. You can attend or share your work-in-progress in the form of a short presentation or a poster. If you would like to present, we invite you to give a 5 to 10 minute presentation followed by a Q&A.

If you are a postgraduate student at any stage of your study (postgraduate diploma, Masters, MPhil, PhD) or a recent graduate at any university in New Zealand or overseas, you're welcome to participate free of charge! This will be an opportunity to receive feedback from your peers and experts in the field. Come to discuss, network and socialise over light refreshments.

Venue: WG126, AUT City Campus (55 Wellesley Street East, Auckland CBD)

Time: Tuesday 15th November 2022, from 10am to 4pm

We'll let you know whether your abstract has been accepted within a week from your submission date.

Deadline for abstract submission: 30th October 2022

All abstracts will be published electronically. All presentations and posters will be invited to be published in the edited video proceedings.

Come and share any aspects of your postgraduate research project.
You may like to focus on, for example:

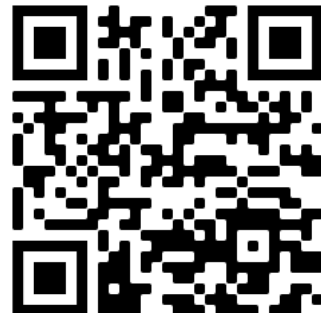

- Excerpts of your screen practice
- Discussion/description of your project
- Challenges of conducting your research
- Research process, methods and methodologies
- Concept development and process
- Ethical considerations
- Writing thesis and exegesis
- Research findings
- Literature Review (a critical review of contextual knowledge)
- Etc

Refreshments provided.

We encourage the use of audio-visuals in your presentation. There will be a projector and facility to plug in a laptop.
