

AK1050 Postgraduate Certificate in Law

Graduate Profile for the Postgraduate Certificate in Law

A graduate of the Postgraduate Certificate in Law will be able to:

- a. Demonstrate advanced theoretical and practical knowledge of law and legal issues within at least one area of law. (Knowledge/Understanding)
- b. Carry out independent and self-directed study. (Personal/Intellectual Autonomy)
- c. Identify the underlying and sometimes unexpressed concepts and theories that inform judicial opinions and legislative proposals. (Ethical/Professional Dispositions)
- d. Adjust to a rapidly changing commercial and professional environment by developing their capacity to carry out independent research and study in discrete areas of legal application. (Inquiry/Research/Creativity)
- e. Demonstrate critical-thinking skills in discrete areas of legal knowledge, and have an introductory knowledge of a wide range of electronic legal databases. (Inquiry/Research/Creativity; Knowledge/Understanding)
- f. Demonstrate effective and coherent written and oral communication skills with regard to advanced legal concepts and theories in the selected courses. (Communication)