

AK1085 Master of Supply Chain Management

Graduate Profile for the Master of Supply Chain Management

A graduate of the Master of Supply Chain Management will be able to demonstrate:

- a. Advanced knowledge of supply chain management professional practices in national and global business environments. (Knowledge/Understanding)
- b. Advanced ability to use critical self-reflection and continuous development to deepen knowledge of self, others and relevant professional practice. (Personal/Intellectual Autonomy)
- c. Advanced capability to incorporate relevant social, ethical, cultural, environmental and sustainability dimensions when evaluating and making informed business decisions/supply chain and logistics decisions (Ethical/Environmental/Professional Dispositions)
- d. Conceptual and critical system thinking, analysis, reasoning, integration and judgement to provide solutions to complex supply chain problems. (Inquiry/Research/Creativity)
- e. Ability to apply contemporary theory to current supply chain management practice and logistics issues. (Application/Skills)
- f. Ability to plan and conduct independent projects that demonstrate critical awareness of issues and challenges associated with supply chain management and logistics in a changing world (Application/Skills)
- g. Ability to communicate and collaborate effectively using multiple modalities across various business contexts. (Communication Skills/Application).